10/10 tottaly worth it.. good game to eat vagg to. Most important thing to know about this game is that it is NOT PUzzle Quest. If you come into this game expecting something like Puzzle Quest, you will be disappointed. Puzzle Quest is an rpg with a puzzle game as the core of it's combat system. Gryomancer is a puzzle game with a fantasy theme and a few very light rpg items tacked on.

You have skills, but they all work automatically. Make a match (using Bejewled Twist instead of Bejeweled) and both your skill gage and the enemy's fills up. Match your current monster's color to fill a lot fast, match the enemy's to stop it from filling at all. Full gages turn jems into jems that do things when involved in matches if it's your, or timed jewels that go off if you dont' get rid of them if they are the enemies.

That's mostly it. There are also maps to explore and experience levels which change the rate of skill filling and different monsters you can add to your party. The focus is more on the puzzle side with the other stuff flavoring it.

Is is good? Yes, I think it is very good.. Part of a venerable military FPS franchise, unfortunately MS2 doesn't run on modern systems well at all - a complex series of low level configuration changes can make it run but only barely, and it's not stable.

We know from many well treated updates of older games that publishers can make old games run well on new systems, there's many examples of that, but the publisher hasn't bothered modernising the game here to make sure it runs on new systems - this wouldn't really be a problem except for the fact they're asking for money for the game and haven't added any disclaimers to reflect the fact they've let the game age beyond practical playability.

This is reprehensible, and gamers should be warned away.. Amplitude Studio's artowrk for the minor factions is, as always, amazing.

FlyByNo's music is, as always, phenomenal.

Do I recommend this? For three dollars?

Yes. Yes, I do.

Blockwick is a fairly good puzzle game where you just have to move colored blocks to be next to other colored blocks, sounds easy, right?

The game starts fairly simple, with not so hard to solve puzzles that are pretty decent and start becoming more complicated as you progress through the levels, it adds more kind of blocks that do other stuff, like stick to other blocks and move with those, put other blocks "to sleep" (doesn't allow you to move them), caterpillar blocks and other kind of things, you can complete a level by just putting some blocks together, but if you want a bit more of a challenge you can put them in a way that they cover some locations on the floor marked by glyphs which will make the level "illuminated", it's up to you if you want the extra difficulty.

It took me 17 hours to complete the 160 puzzles (with collectionables and "illumination") that come with Blockwick 2 and 5 hours to complete 144 puzzles called "Basics" which are simpler and easier to solve (the game says they are ideal for children).

The game has a lot of levels to offer and it's available for a cheap price, the puzzles are interesting and some of them make you think a lot to be able to get an actual solution, the difficulty increases as you progress and makes it more challenging every time, I got the game for my girlfriend (who doesn't play games) and she seems to enjoy it :D

If you like puzzle games this is probably one that you will like a lot, highly recommended :D. nice weapons for killers. Waste of Money!. I want to love this game. Which I do enjoy it alot, but what it comes down to is what everyone else says, PAYWALLS. When you start you get 3 days of unlimited tags for any animal which sounds great right? The catch is that you only get two guns, sure the 12 Gauge is permitted to use on A LOT more animals than the .243 they give you as well but once the three days is up don't expect to be able to enjoy the game until you spend $3.99 on some game time. But wait there's more! You still only have the two guns, one blind, one bottle of decent scent remover, and one call that only works for deer. So in other words expect to spend a ton of money on this game if you really want to play it. It's not my kind of game for that exact reason. Other than the paywalls this game is amazing. If they were to remove the paywalls and make you pay $30 for the game I'd be all in for sure but there's no way I'm playing any more of this. Hopefully the new one will not have paywalls but I'm not holding my breath.. Very bad soundtrack but decent local co-op claymation shmup. this is a GREAT GAME! check out my vid

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DatT2GM0g5w>. Nice COYA kind of game. Don't buy it on steam . get it for free on the app/google store. Short, difficult, boring, and just.. not that fun. I played for no more than 10 minutes and I'm sick of it. I got it for free and still feel like I paid too much. Best ragequitting sim I've ever played.. COOL for like 30 seconds and then gets boring
